Another new development without affordable housing

ANOTHER Seaton development looks set to be built without any affordable housing on offer. The site in question is north of Harbour Road within what is known as Seaton Regeneration Site.

When district councillors gave outline planning permission it was determined that 25 per cent of the homes should be affordable housing as part of a Section 106 agreement.

But applicant TDP Ltd has submitted an application requesting that the affordable housing condition is removed – and East Devon District Council (EDDC) planning officers agree.

A central government initiative permits the reassessment of affordable housing conditions because of the current financial situation.

The same initiative was pivotal when EDDC gave outline planning permission for 90 apartments on the former Racial site without any affordable housing clause.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

The applicant has provided evidence, which has been independently assessed for EDDC by the District Valuer. In short, the District Valuer's conclusions concur with the applicants that the scheme cannot support the provision of affordable housing.

Decreased density of housing, decreased land value and the cost of fill operations are the reasons given.

An EDDC report explained: "Once an apportionment of the fill costs are taken into account, and with the provision of 25 per cent affordable housing, the development land value would reduce to a negative value of -£5.17 million.

With the requirement for affordable housing removed it is suggested that the residential land value would increase to approximately £2.93 million (-£3.9 million with fill costs apportioned).

EDDC Member Champion for Seaton, Councillor

Steph Jones, is quoted in the report as saying: "If approved it will mean another development in Seaton which has provided no affordable housing which is much-needed in the town.

"I appreciate that new procedures have been introduced by central government, but we are still faced with the problem of how we can deliver our affordable housing provision across the district which is desperately needed, not only for the younger generation but also for families and the older generation."

The application will be heard by EDDC's Development Management Committee on Tuesday, August 20th.

● AFFORDABLE housing can be described as "for households whose needs are not met by the open market".

Eligibility is determined with regard to local incomes and local house prices.

Mystery fishing boat sinking

MYSTERY surrounds the sinking of a Seaton fishing boat on the beach in the early hours of last Friday morning.

The fishing vessel 'Loy Boy', belonging to Beer man Brian Sanderson and a feature of the Seaton beach scene, was floating perfectly well on Thursday but mysteriously sank at its mooring off Seaton beach during the night.

The incident was logged with the coastguard at 5.40am and Beer Coastguards attended, helping to clear up the floating debris.

Mr Sanderson was notified as soon as possible.

Seaton doctor found dead

SEATON has been left shocked and saddened following the death of a much-loved doctor.

Doctor Grant Neumegen was found dead at his home last Friday, aged just 49.

Police were called at 11pm to the address in Sidmouth; whilst the death has been treated as unexplained, police say there were no suspicious circumstances. A file has been prepared on behalf of the coroner.

His family explained his death as 'tragic and unexpected'. A spokesperson for the Townsend House Surgery in Seaton, where Doctor Neumegen was based, said: "It is with great sadness that we have to inform all our patients that Doctor Grant Neumegen died suddenly on Friday, August 2nd.

"It has come as a huge shock to everyone who knew him, and we hope you can bear with us through this very difficult time.

"Grant had been working at Townsend House since 2007 and was a much-loved member of our team who will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

"A condolence book will be available in reception if you would like to contribute."

A Facebook page has been set up in memory of Doctor Neumegen where patients, colleagues and friends have paid tribute.

Doctor Neumegen was originally a New Zealander who moved to Sidmouth with his wife and two children and worked part-time as a GP in Seaton for Devon Doctors whilst also working in the RD&E Exeter in the dermatology and A&E departments.

Doctor Neumegen was an enthusiastic and active person, taking part in the London Marathon, skydiving, a climb up Kilimanjaro and spending time with his children.

Perry's 1,000 runs

SEAN Perry continued his fine season with the bat by easing through the 1,000 runs for the season barrier by cracking a superb 137 in Axminster CC 2nd XI's victory at Upottery 2nds on Saturday.

The Carpetmen totalled 281 all out batting first with Alan Ostler clipping a fine 71.

The hosts were dismissed for 230 with James Whetlor leading the attack with 4 for 23.

High-flying Ax welcome Feniton on Saturday. Not such good news from the Axminster 1st XI who fell agonisingly three runs short as they failed to chase down visiting Bideford's 202 for 9 in Division C.

In reply several Ax batsman got starts with Gary Larcombe top-scoring with 32 but they could only muster 199 for 9 and had to settle for eight points and now trail league leaders Bideford by 34 runs.

AXMINSTER

Launch of Pride In Axminster

THIS week we launch an initiative which will give the people of Axminster and district the chance to honour our local champions.

As part of our "Axminster Fights Back" campaign, Pulman's View is organising the "Pride In Axminster" awards which will be presented at a glittering ceremony in the Guildhall on Thursday, September 26th.

We launched the "Axminster Fights Back" campaign after the collapse of Axminster Carpets earlier this year to highlight the positive aspects of living and working in Axminster.

As part of the campaign we were one of the key sponsors of the first Job Fair in Axminster and now, with the help of our readers, we intend to honour those people who work so hard in our community.

And later in the year we will be organising a "Showcasing Axminster" exhibition at the Guildhall.

The "Pride In Axminster Awards" were launched at a reception for the local business community at the Arts Café on Tuesday of last week.

At that reception, Philip Evans, managing director of Devon, Dorset & Somerset Newspapers Ltd., the company which publishes the Pulman's View series, said Axminster had always pulled together in tough times and the town was definitely "fighting back" after the collapse of the carpet factory.

"Our Pride In Axminster" awards will recognise those who work so hard in the community to make Axminster such a great place to live and work," he said.

Start on clubhouse

WORK on Axminster Town Football Club's new ground off Chard Road is making steady progress.

The media were invited to a progress briefing on Wednesday on last week, hosted by club chairman Ray Self and Steve Russell, of Devonshire Homes.

The football have vacated their facilities at Sector Lane where Devonshire Homes will be building around 70 new homes.

The club's new site will boast a clubhouse, office space, changing facilities and two full-size football pitches plus smaller pitches with floodlighting for the main pitch.

The foundations for the clubhouse are nearing completion and Mr Russell said: "We are working on the two sites in tandem and both are progressing well. We anticipate handing over the new club house in November just before we complete the first delivery of affordable homes at Sector Lane by the end of the year."

From the editor's chair We're fighting back!

THIS week we launch our "Pride In Axminster" awards in which we are asking readers to nominate their community champions.

It's all part of our "Axminster Fights Back" campaign which we launched after the collapse of Axminster Carpets earlier this year.

Thankfully, the worldwide Axminster brand was saved with the emergence of a new company, Axminster Carpets 2013 with a hundred or so employees being retained.

But hundreds still lost their jobs and the fall-out from the shock of losing the town's biggest employer is still causing severe difficulties for many local families.

After reporting extensively on the fall and rise of Axminster's carpet manufacturer, this newspaper decide to change the emphasis and focus on the efforts to help those whose livelihoods had been severely affected by launching the "Axminster Fights Back" initiative.

We were one of the key sponsors of the first Axminster Job Fair, attended by more than 250 people, and in November we will be organising a "Showcasing Axminster" exhibition at the Guildhall in November.

But the focus is now very much on Thursday, September 26th when we will be staging a glittering awards ceremony in the Guildhall.

Axminster is fortunate to have so many volunteers who dedicate their lives to helping others, often without recognition or publicity.

Details are included on page 18 of this week's issue on how readers can submit nominations for eight categories - charity, young persons, the arts, sport, emergency services, business, rural affairs and community workers.

The winners in each category will be judged by a panel made of representatives from the sponsors and will be invite to the awards dinner where they will receive a special plaque. The winner of the community champion category will also receive a cheque for £100 to donate to their favourite charity. The closing date for nominations is September 6th.

♦ AS PART of our "Axminster Fights Back" campaign we also launched an essay competition inviting readers to write to us and tell us why they loved living in Axminster.

The essay submitted by Jane Godbeer, wife of former vet and district council chairman Graham Godbeer, a charming piece of prose, was adjudged the winner and has received her £100 prize which she has donated to Axminster Parish Church. Mrs Godbeer's essay can be seen on page 13.

Thank you to all those others who submitted an essay; judging was not an easy task and one theme came across very strongly - Axminster's community spirit is as strong as ever.

COLYTON

In memory of Mary MacLean

A BENCH in memory of much-loved Colyton resident Mary MacLean was officially unveiled on Saturday.

Family, friends and representatives of groups who had donated toward the bench gathered to see it and have their photo taken at one of Mary's favourite spots, next to Freakhayne Bridge on Footpath 11, toward Northleigh.

Mary's eldest son, Allan MacLean, said: "Thank you to everyone who donated toward the seat and the Berry family for allowing us to put it here."

he added that the bench had already been well-used by local walkers, and friends said that Mary was "greatly missed".

A prayer was then said on behalf of the Royal British Legion, one of the donating organisations, by Nigel Speller.

Eveline MacLean (nee Chard), known as Mary, was born in Seaton in 1930 and died at her Colyton home in October 2011. She was married to the late Dr MacLean.

Mary was well-known in the local community as a member and supporter of many organisations. She had been involved with St John Ambulance since 1954 and later served as president.

She was also president of the Royal British Legion Women's Section in Colyton, which has since disbanded.

HONITON

High Street brawl

ONE man is believed to have suffered a broken nose as a result of an incident in the town centre in the early hours of Sunday.

Police have issued an appeal for witnesses to the incident, which happened in High Street.

The ambulance service was alerted at 2.13am to reports that as many as seven people had been assaulted.

The location given to the ambulance service was "outside Three Tuns pub".

At the scene, paramedics established that the most seriously hurt person had probably suffered a broken nose.

A police spokesperson confirmed the location and said that officers did speak to one person identified as a victim. No arrests were made.

OTTERY St MARY

Your chance to name new roads

WOULD you like to live in Privet Drive, Catchpole Close or Hogwarts Way? Or perhaps you might like to set up home in Tar Barrels Terrace or a Pixie's Lair Road?

Ottery St Mary residents have been given the opportunity to have their say by putting their ideas forward for new road names in the town.

A new housing development to be built by Redrow Homes near Butts Road will need a total of four new road names and Ottery St Mary Town Council and East Devon District Council need your help to come up with the most original names for the town.

The road names can be as creative as you like and can be unique or may relate to the town's historical associations or with the town's current attractions such as Pixie Day or Tar barrels. The new names could even relate to Ottery's European twinned towns or maybe after it's literary associations with Samuel Colridge Taylor or Harry Potter.

EDDC have been working with Ottery St Mary Town Council on the project, who were keen to get the local community involved.

-ble and was then seen at the beach on Friday morning trying to arrange a recovery.

Mr Sanderson has been in dispute with the district council for several years over whether his boat should be kept at Seaton beach or in the nearby harbour.

The salvage operation was in full swing on Saturday morning, with ropes attached to the stricken craft which was then pulled safely onto the beach.

A police spokesperson said the force has no record of a complaint being made in connection with the sinking.

Flower show 'best ever'

BEST SHOW EVER | Winners of this year's Beer Flower Show

MEMBERS of Beer Horticultural Society named this year's flower show 'the best ever' after entries were on the up and the community turned out in full force to show their support.

From floral displays to vegetables, crafts and baked treats, villagers helped toward a total of 506 exhibits, the highest amount in many years.

Regulars to the show once again shone, with dedicated show supporter, John Lang, picking up four prizes and Vic Bartlett scooping four awards for his entries.

Younger villagers also pledged their support with more children's entries than in previous years and an overall positive involvement for all classes in the competition.

Whilst trophies and gifts were handed out for the competition winners, Beer Horticultural Society's local 'Beer in Bloom' awards were also handed out. Chairman of the horticultural society, Ursula Makepeace, commented: 'Beer Flower Show was a resounding success all round and it was the biggest show since I took over the horticultural society in 1995.

"A total of approximately 220 people visited the show which also turned out to be an enjoyable social event.

"A lot of people who do not see each other regularly had a chance to have 'a good old chat'.

"We had 506 exhibits. All classes were well represented and we are particularly pleased that many more children participated than in previous years. We hope that this is a good omen for next year."

Cabbage correction

LAST week we reported that Michael Hawkins, a winner at the Axmouth Village Show had grown, amongst many other large vegetables, a giant cabbage 'big enough to sit on a chair'.

However, it has been brought to our attention that the cabbage was, in fact, grown by Tony Taylor of Colyford who received first prize for his efforts.

MOLE Avon Trading has celebrated its 40th birthday in style. Celebrations took place on Thursday, August 1st at the company's Axminster, Crediton and Okehampton bases, as well as at Honiton Show.

Past and present staff and board members were present at the company stand at Honiton Show to mark the occasion. The company actually dates back to the 1960s.

Mole Avon, as it was first known, was formed in 1966 as an association of two farmer-owned buying groups in Devon – Mole Valley Farmers in the north and Avon Farmers in the south.

But it took its current Mole Avon Trading Limited name 40 years ago, in 1973, when the control and running of the business was transferred to local people principally from the mid-Devon area.

Current chief executive Richard Billson said: "It has been a pleasure to have worked for the company for nearly 35 of the 40 years of Mole Avon Trading Limited's life.

"Whilst we grew geographically in our earlier days with the addition of Okehampton in 1975 and Axminster in 1978, our focus for the last three decades has been about ensuring we improve our existing premises along with the range of products offered from these outlets."

The Axminster branch has benefited from the acquisition of adjoining land over the years and underwent a £500,000 refit and extension last year.

Alan Perryman is a farmer and has been a director of Mole Avon Trading Ltd for its entire 40-year history.

He said: "It was a proud moment for me having seen this business grow from virtually nothing to its current success – a turnover of £23M, 2,300 shareholders and members, a choice of 20,000 stock lines plus all the additional services we offer.

"Much praise must go to all the staff who have helped us be the success we have over the years. Their knowledge, welcoming attitude and sense of being one of the family has been one of the backbones to our huge success. I hope and believe that this can continue for way into the future."

Publicity boom for Devon thanks to Tour of Britain

COUNCIL chiefs are looking forward to the publicity that will be generated when the Tour of Britain comes to Devon on September 20th.

The county will be showcased live on both ITV4 and British Eurosport.

It will be the first time that both channels will broadcast daily live coverage of Britain's biggest professional cycle race, building upon ITV4's successful coverage of the 2012 Tour of Britain, which was the first time the race had been screened live.

The Devon stage, covering 85 miles of the county, will start in Sidmouth and finish at Haytor in Dartmoor National Park. The route also includes SKODA King of the Mountains climbs at Pennsylvania Road on the outskirts of Exeter, Mamhead, and Six Mile Hill on Dartmoor, as well as Yodel Sprints outside Blundell's School in Tiverton, through Exeter High Street, and also at Chudleigh.

Councillor Stuart Hughes, Devon County Council Cabinet Member for Highways, said: "It is great to see both ITV4 and British Eurosport broadcasting the Tour of Britain this year.

"It's a fantastic opportunity for millions of people worldwide to see Devon's beautiful coast and moorland as well as our communities which will all provide a stunning backdrop to the stage.

"Hopefully this exposure will inspire people who watch the coverage to pay us a visit in future to discover what a great cycling county we are."

Councillor Ian Thomas, East Devon District Council's Cabinet Member for Economy, said: "The fact that the September 20th stage is starting in Sidmouth and is going via Honiton to Tiverton on its way to Haytor will be a triple bonus for East Devon.

"Not only will it provide local people with a superb spectacle as a sport that is rapidly gaining the affection of millions of Britons, but it's also likely to kick-start further local interest in cycling as a healthy lifestyle choice.

"Third and by no means least, it will provide a welcome boost to the local economy both before and during the event. This is through the on-going tourism that such wide TV coverage is likely to generate and the impact of a global audience seeing what a great place East Devon is to do business."

In 2012, the Tour of Britain was shown in 124 countries worldwide to over 288 million homes.

According to Devon County Council, last year's Devon stage generated more than £7.3 million in the county in a record breaking year watched by more than 220,000 spectators along the route in Devon.

Flying visit from new air ambulance

DEVON Air Ambulance Trust's (DAAT) brand new £4.5 million EC 135 helicopter made a flying visit to Axminster last week.

The two-hour visit was well-attended and was part of a five-day Devon Air Ambulance on Tour programme.

The helicopter will enter active service on September 1st and trust bosses are keen to show it off to as many people as possible.

The visit was hosted on Axe Valley Community College sports field, which was turned into an occasion with several side attractions including live music and a majorette performance.

DAAT fundraising director Caroline Creer said about the turnout: "It is testimony to the support we get from communities in Devon. "The helicopter is funded by the communities and people of Devon, and this is an opportunity for us to say thank you."

"This is what you bought. It is wonderful and I'm very excited."

■ ATTRACTION: The helicopter drew a lot of attention and pilot Jesse Konstam, right, happily invited visitors to look around

Lottery boost for playgroup funds

RAINBOW Under 5s' Playgroup in Axminster has been able to splash out on furniture and storage facilities thanks to a grant from a National Lottery fund.

The grant came to £3,224 and Rainbow manager Clare Male said it was for outdoor toy storage and accessible nursery furniture.

She added: "The group has purchased two new garden sheds to store outside equipment, keeping it in good condition for the children to use safely."

"The children greatly benefit from outdoor physical play, learning healthy habits regarding exercise and learning physical skills such as ball games, sports etc."

Cameron gains shield of excellence

CAMERON Gibson won the 2013 Catenian Association Shield for Excellence at St Mary's Catholic Primary School in Axminster.

The shield is awarded annually to a pupil in recognition of endeavours and achievements as well as a demonstration of Christian values and for being an example to others.

Axminster Catenians spokesperson Bill Stead said: "The award is presented to the pupil who, in the opinion of the headteacher and staff of each school, has provided an outstanding example to others of all round Christian values during their time in the school.

"It is not directly related to academic or sporting achievements and is open to all pupils, including those who are not Catholics.

"The award takes the form of a large multi-year plaque for the school, inscribed with the winner's name each year, and a smaller plaque, together with a scroll, which the winner retains."

Entries up at garden show

CLOSE to 250 exhibits were entered across 49 classes for the Axminster Allotment & Leisure Gardeners' Association Summer Show.

impressed by the standard of all entries.

Charity trip is by water and road

SEATON cyclist and adventurer Alistair Cope is about to make a combined cycling and canoeing trip from Edinburgh to Exmouth for charity.

The unsupported solo journey will see the 55-year-old father of three tow his flax-covered canoe behind his bicycle until he finds water and then he'll put his bike into the canoe and paddle.

Alistair, who is no stranger to adventure, circumnavigated the UK coastline by bicycle back in 2010.

He has been busy working on the project with Flaxlands, who has created a very specific flax covered canoe for the task.

Altogether it's a journey of about 300 miles on water with 111 locks to negotiate and 390 miles on land that takes in part of the North York Moors.

Everything will be carried in the canoe, including all of Alistair's camping, cycling and canoeing equipment.

When asked how long will it take, Alistair said: "About four weeks as although I can really press on when cycling, canoeing this style of boat is quite slow."

"They're going to be long days, but I am crossing most of middle England on water, so it should be fascinating."

His route takes in Edinburgh, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, York, Doncaster, Nottingham, Birmingham, Stratford-upon-Avon, Gloucester, Exeter and, finally, Exmouth. He is set to start on Saturday, August 17th and finish on Saturday, September 14th.

Most importantly, Alistair is raising funds for three charities. Headway Devon and Exeter Royal Academy for Deaf Education are based near him in Exeter and will get 90 per cent of the donations; he is also raising funds for Blesma and 10 per cent will be allocated to this charity, which helps veterans who have lost limbs, the use of limbs or the loss of eyesight.

You can donate and follow Alistair's progress via his website at www.papete.co.uk and if you happen to be on his route, he apparently won't turn down the offer of a bed, shower or even just a slice of cake if it is offered.

Two shops - Saddles and Paddles of Exeter and Bikelands of Exmouth - has sponsored the trip and he is really grateful for their help.

Exewing handover cheques

SCI-FI fundraisers from Exewing gathered at Pecorama for a special cheque presentation after their recent charity day raised a whopping £7,650.

Together with a Doctor Who monster and a full functioning dalek, members of the fundraising group met with representatives of Exeter based cancer charity FORCE and members of staff from Pecorama on Monday evening to hand over the cheques.

The proceeds of the day will be benefitting FORCE as well as CRY - Cardiac Risk in the Young; both charities will receive 50 per cent each.

Exewing's Karyn Shields said: "The Exewing Fundraisers would like to thank all the management and staff at Pecorama for all their help and assistance in making the day as hugely successful as it was."

Representatives from the two benefitting charities thanked Exewing and Pecorama for their support, whilst Pecorama thanked all who were involved in the day, including the many visitors who turned out to join in the charity sci-fi day event in June.

Creepy crawly fun

■ YOUNG visitors to Seaton Library enjoyed a special creepy crawlies arts and crafts session. Probus Club search their ancestry with genealogist

MARY Hyland from Honiton, whose name has undergone a series of mutations from its original Irish Gaelic, is a genealogist who has spoken to Axminster Probus Club on a previous occasion.

At their August meeting she returned to give a humorous account of her experiences in that field and, with her jolly manner, soon had her audience in high spirits.

Mary made the point that our ancestors are real people, as are we, but have often left their lives shrouded in mystery.

This was through no fault of their own but a consequence of their times. In these modern times the facility exists for everybody to leave behind a personal history yet so few do so.

Aside from the laughter this was the main point of her talk – to persuade people to record something of their lives for their descendants.

It is often forgotten that the older pensioners grew up in a world which is utterly foreign to their grandchildren who have no conception of the living conditions of those times. Without their reminiscences they will never understand.

Some of Mary's clients ask for research to prove their connection with royalty. The connection they hope for seldom exists but at least 25 per cent of us have some royal blood – by the laws of statistics – though we may have to go back to Ethelred or beyond to find it.

That, of course, is not feasible so the other 75 per cent can say that they are "probably" related!

The Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the Kilminster Cafe, Bistro & Motel on the A35 Gammons Hill on the first Tuesday of each month. For further information ring 01460 220528.

Rotarians learn history of Power Tools

BERNIE Styles, part-retired joint-owner of Axminster Tool Centre, the largest employer in Axminster, gave a delightfully modest account of the early beginnings of the Power Tools dynasty to his fellow members of Axminster Rotary Club.

Working from empty, unused buildings in Axminster, he, his father and Graham set about attempting to establish a business when made redundant from their regular jobs.

He was still in the RAF, and spending only part of the time in Axminster, but they started buying up government surplus items, from laundry baskets to old electrical items, and they made money a living from manufacturing electrical goods and battery rechargers.

Finding it time to make decisions as to how to diversify, a number of options were considered, one being to open a night club in the town.

Fortunately or not, depending on your point of view, this was not taken further, and the beginnings of the present large company was formed with the opening of a tool shop in the town.

Recessions saw profits tumble and risky moves to open new offices resulted, luckily, in business increasing.

The move to Millwey and then to investigate the far eastern markets for cheaper stock proved a turning point and lead to the £30 million plus company with 230 employees seen today.

Bernie had a few words of wisdom for his colleagues in Rotary: "Make friends – help them and they will help you" and "Progress is doing what you think is right".

Bernie was thanked by the President-Elect Simon Dunn on behalf of the members, who gave him a rousing round of applause.

Art club members receive awards at summer social

AXMINSTER Art Society held its summer social in July in Musbury Village Hall.

Jenny Fells gave an interesting illustrated talk on the work of Axminster Arts, including its history and the conversion of the old courtroom, police house and cells, which now form Axminster Arts Café.

Dinny Pollard won the Guest Judges' award at the Spring Exhibition with her painting "Heron", and she received the sculpture The Carpenter.

Michael Gilling won the Guest Artists' Award at the Summer Exhibition with his painting "Summer Scene

1", and he received the sculpture Lara.

Janet Bagguley won the Guest Judges' Award at the Summer Exhibition with her painting "Out of the Wood" and she received the Wooden Bowl.

Awards were also won by Carolyn Barker and Ron Hall.

The guest judges were Jackie Swarbrick – Silver of the Axe Vale Festival Committee and professional artist Jennie Pearson.

Members would like to give a warm thanks to Jennie Pearson (the guest artist who judged the Summer Exhibition) for presenting the awards.

Shopkeepers' attitudes key to Seaton's success

■ WHY does Seaton seem to have so many part-time shopkeepers?

Walking through the town at 3.15pm on Wednesday afternoon (August 7th), both butchers closed, two out of three bakers closed, four other shops closed, and by 4pm both cafes on Harbour Road closed!

Some shops have unfathomable opening hours – different each day. One shop even says open "sometimes". They just don't get it, do they?

This is peak holiday season with plenty of people in the town. Seaton is a holiday town. If visitors find shops closed, where do they go? Tesco, and that is where they shop next time!

The shopkeepers only have themselves to blame. Overheard in Sidmouth recently, visitors talking to each other "don't bother going to Seaton, nothing is open".

So come on shopkeepers of Seaton, open your doors, encourage people to stay in the town and spend their money with you. Your attitude is the key to the town's success!

menu and service.

The food is excellently cooked and presented and served in a very friendly atmosphere.

Happy to take on a beach hut!

■ IN response to the complaints of dogs mess and cyclists in front of the beach huts, can I say that when we moved to Seaton last year I enquired about a hut to be told that I am number 143 on the waiting list.

Therefore, if the gentleman is so upset, I would be very happy to take over his beach hut.

Brave abseilers raise funds for church bell ropes and wheels

THE large wooden wheels and bell ropes that turn the Talaton Church Bells have been rather neglected recently and work has commenced on their repair at a great cost.

To raise the necessary funds, the Church of St James the Great, Talaton, with the help of the Rock Centre from Chudleigh, organised a sponsored abseil in July.

All those participating were asked to raise a minimum of £30 sponsorship with a special prize for the person who raised the most and took part.

A total of 60 brave locals took on the challenge, from eight years old to 88, descending down the ropes, two at a time.

The Rock Centre staff supervised the whole event and their accredited instructors led by Wendy Sampson made sure everyone went down safely.

The community of Talaton thoroughly recommend this fun and daring activity, which they picked up from churches in Feniton and Ottery St Mary which had run similar fundraising events recently.

During the day the wheels were kept running by serving homemade refreshments below in the church, a viewing area on the ground, a photographer at the top of the tower and the Rock Centre Staff to show the abseilers the ropes at the top and the bottom.

■ WHAT GOES UP MUST COME DOWN: Pictured left, fundraisers abseiled down the Church of St James the Great in Talaton to raise money for new wooden wheels and ropes to turn the church bells

Festival raises £300

THE flower festival at St Mary-the-Virgin Church in Compyne raised more than £300 for church funds.

Nineteen delightful and imaginative displays received high praise from those who came to view.

Each display had its quotation alongside, and the variety of the combinations clearly brought happy reminiscences, enjoyment and some serious thought.

Churchwarden Graham Jones said: "A really big thank you goes to the flower arrangers, those who served refreshments and the stewards."

"The event closed with a festival praise service led by the Reverend John Streeting."

Success for Musbury School staff

LORRAINE Tolman is a proud holder of the Advanced Diploma of School Business Management and is now aiming for the School Business Director (Masters Level). She is the administrator at Musbury Primary School and was previously working as a branch assistant in a building society.

She was also a volunteer at a primary school, which developed into a role as a maternity cover teaching assistant.

One thing led to another and Lorraine subsequently applied for the role of school administrator at Musbury Primary School.

She said: "After three years at Musbury Primary School I started to look for opportunities to develop my role further."

"I was invited to hear the experiences of a school business manager at network meeting."

"Finding her story inspirational, I delivered a short presentation to my headteacher and governors highlighting the advantages to the school of having a school administrator who would understand the issues that the school management were facing and be capable of seeking funding streams, allowing the headteacher to have a greater focus on teaching and learning."

"I have been in this role for eight years being responsible for all administration, finance and clerical activities, finding the job interesting, varied and challenging."

She has completed all three programmes with The National College for Teaching and Leadership: Certificate of School Business Management (CSBM); Diploma of School Business Management (DSBM) and Advanced Diploma of School Business Management (ADSBM).

She praised everyone involved with the school who had supported her studies in various ways.

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE nights may be drawing in slightly but in the month of August, our thoughts are still to fine weather and holidays, with visitors to our homes and churches.

This year we are not disappointed! At our churches we can offer a warm welcome to visitors, and in our worship we shall remember those taking a break from their regular round, with prayers especially for our farmers, and those with burdens at this time, particularly employment.

There are many interesting churches in East Devon and the majority will be open in the daytime. Times of local services and events will be on their notice boards. Additionally, there are special church events - see below.

A great event is promised on Wednesday, August 14th at the Southleigh Village Fayre from 2pm to 5pm to be opened by Graham Barton, from TV's "Homes Under the Hammer". There is free parking and refreshments.

At Dalwood, just off the A35, August 14th is also the date for a Village Fair from 2pm onwards.

At Ottery St Mary, besides a selection of churches, the Salvation Army will offer their regular programme of weekly events, all welcome - details from 01404 812159.

Branscombe has Songs of Praise on the beach on Sunday, August 18th at 6pm - parking, supper to order.

The Minster Church at Axminster is happy to report proceeds of more than £1,500 at their recent Summer Fair and are grateful for the support. A reminder that Lunchtime Concerts continue every Thursday at 12.30pm. From September 19th to 22nd there will be a Flower Festival ending with Songs of Praise at 6.30pm on the Sunday evening with favourite hymns chosen in advance and voted on in September - all at Axminster.

Two heritage items - until August 20th at the Allhallows Museum, Honiton, opens at 9.30am. Then at Seaton, until the same date, at the Axe Valley Museum. See how our churches looked some time ago.

A group of 20 cyclists of all ages took part in the first ever St Giles Northleigh Cycle Ride, which it is hoped will be repeated yearly. Bikes of all ages appeared in aid of the Teenage Cancer Trust. The Vicar, the Reverend Peter Walker, was starter and the ride ended with a barbecue.

There will be coffee at Colyton Sunday School (next to the church) on all Tuesdays at 9.30am-11.30am and at St Michael's, Colyford, on Wednesday, August 21st from 10am to 12noon. And the next Leisure Lunch at Colyton (in the Sunday School Building) is on Thursday, August 22nd at 12.30pm - please sign in church to book.

Coming soon at St Rita's Centre, Honiton, on Sunday, September 15th, a Youth Rally from 1pm to 6pm for 8 to 17 years.

For over four years, Kilminster Baptist Church has not had a building to meet in. Last weekend, they had one even only for 4 hours! At the Kilminster Show they had use of the Inflatable Church (probably the only one in the country) and set it up on the showground. As well as housing displays and a prayer station, it gave them all the chance to spread the news that they hope to begin rebuilding a permanent chapel again in 2013! Bravo!

ORIGINALLY from Exeter, Adrian Harris moved around the local area, to Rousdon and Axmouth, before settling in Seaton.

He works at Ceramtec in Colyton, where he has been for 35 years, and his spare time is spent volunteering as the Exeter and East Devon area event co-ordinator for charity Greyhound Rescue West of England (GRWE).

● HOW did you become involved with Greyhouse Rescue?

I have liked greyhounds for a long time so I started working with GRWE in March 2012 as a volunteer. I was soon asked to be the merchandise holder for the area, then in April this year became event co-ordinator

● TELL us a little about the charity's work...

We are the largest independent greyhound rescue charity working in the UK. We find homes for retired greyhounds so they can enjoy a quiet, peaceful life after racing. We also rescue and re-home other sighthounds such as whippet and lurchers. Last year we found over 600 homes nationally and this year we have been named as the Petplan Animal Charity of the Year.

● WHAT does your role at the charity involve?

I am the events co-ordinator for Exeter and East Devon, so that means organising street collections, days at various supermarkets, as well as stalls at larger events such as the Honiton Show or the Devon County Show, and going along with our merchandise and collection tins, talking to the public about the charity and what we do, the main thing is to raise awareness of the breed and hopefully find someone who would like to adopt a greyhound.

Also, I have to get the volunteers sorted into time slots so we have some people and hounds attending the various events, a couple of hours is the norm so that everyone stays fresh and the hounds don't get bored.

● HOW can people support the charity?

There are lots of ways to help you could come along to events, offer help as a volunteer, become a friend of GRWE, join our 50-50 club, remember us in your will, or best of all adopt a greyhound. Please have a look at www.grwe.com for further information.

● DO you have any pets yourself?

Yes, I have two greyhounds and a very special "honorary" greyhound, also known as a border collie. I always have foster hounds so they can get away from the kennels for a while before rehoming, and a pond full of fish.

● WHAT do you like about living in this area?

What's not to like? Lovely scenery, open spaces, lots of places to go for walks.

● ARE you a member of any other local groups?

Yes, I have been involved in the Axmouth Children's Theatre helping with the pantomime for the last few years.

● WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Buy a bigger house to allow me to adopt some sighthounds.

● WHAT three items would you want on a deserted island?

A kettle for my tea, a radio, and a shower.

Order photos (and much more) from your favourite newspaper

Why I love living in Axminster

An attachment to a town grows out of the people involved and the opportunities presented.

I have lived in Axminster since I married in 1969. My husband, Graham, was locally bred and grew up in Musbury. I was soon infected by his solid feeling for his roots and his genuine interest in the inhabitants and their aspirations. He had already found his life-time job here as a practising veterinary surgeon. We bought a house in Woodbury Lane and have lived there ever since.

Although trained in the same profession, my future was flexibly unplanned. My first job was with the medical practice as a temporary pharmacist, though invited to work for two weeks I stayed for 15 months and only left when I had our first child. There I met a sample of the inhabitants, made friends and provided amusement with my species comparisons. I then drifted into part-time veterinary work alongside the child care.

Living in Axminster was ideal, there was provision for good education, not forgetting our trusty babysitter and plenty of potential for expanding the interests of the children and myself. There was a choice of day and evening classes for me and sports and music opportunities for the young.

A lively music scene and my ability to play the oboe led to many years of enjoyable orchestral experience in the pit for the local operatics and accompanying choral societies. When the lunch time concert series started I was able to contribute as a chamber music player and later as organiser. At this time an interest in reinstating the celebration of a summer festival began and two challenging years of arranging and promoting the ten day event became my lot. I have a deep affection for The Minster; it is a wonderful community space and I often marvel at its survival over the centuries.

Lovely garden

I had lived here for over 15 years before I discovered the lovely garden at the old police station and then watched the development of the Arts Cafe, did a stint serving coffee and cakes and aided fundraising by helping set up an auction of works donated by local artists. This started the Young Artists Sponsorship which continues now, backed by café proceeds.

Alongside my involvement in small areas of the town my husband's membership of the town council and latterly EDDC has given me a wider view of local interests and developments.

It would be unrealistic not to mention the negatives about the town, eyesores have been allowed to persist for decades through intransigent property owners but thankfully, more recently there is evidence of progress for their removal. Things can only improve.

As a long term francophile it was inevitable when Axminster twinned with Douvres la Delivrande we would join the Twinning Association. I succeeded the first chairman for an eight year term of burgeoning cultural exchange involving art, music, drama, sport and regular group visits between the two towns. There is loyal support from an active, if small, membership and we have had some memorable times together.

The town is so fortunate to have attracted diverse entrepreneurs - Axminster Carpets, Axminster Power Tools and what a chance Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall chose to bring River Cottage here, all contributing to an international recognition of the ancient town.

My pride in the town comes with appreciating and grasping all the possibilities presented and most of all, I like the people who live here.

The Joliet Blues Band are on a mission

IN 1980 Joliet Jake Blues was released from prison after serving a three year prison term for armed robbery. Immediately he and his brother Elwood embarked on a mission to put the old Blues Brothers band back together. Everyone remembers that explosive performance at The Palace Hotel Ballroom where a sellout, congenial crowd was joined by hostile police officers and rival band 'The Good Ol' Boys'. Jake and Elwood were sensational, but sadly their days of freedom were numbered. The Justice Department eventually caught up with them, throwing them in jail for a multitude of 'minor' misdemeanours.

Today the Joliet Blues Band, featuring the talents of award-winning actors Dave Ratty and Iain Barton are on a mission to bring the best loved songs from The Blues Brothers' repertoire to theatres across the country. Supported by the voices of The Mighty BeeVees and a fabulous 7 piece blues and soul band, they reignite those old favourites that featured in both Blues Brothers' films and concerts including of course; Shake A Tailfeather, Sweet Home Chicago, Everybody Needs Somebody To Love, Gimme Some Lovin', Peter Gunn and Soul Man.

Those that are already fans of this music will love the authenticity, those that have never heard it before will be in for an experience that will blow their mind.

This high energy 11 piece show band have wowed audiences across the UK with their rip-roaring sell out two hour show "Shake A Tail Feather", that contains all your favourite songs that were made famous by the Blues Brothers.

The Band consists of: Dave "Ramblin Blues" Ratty (Lead Vocals), Iain "Shakin' Blues Harp" Barton (Harmonica and Vocals), Bex "Bee" Arthurs and Verity "Vee" Smith (female backing singers), Chads "Lord Chadlington" Bradbury (Keys), Alex "The Licks" Cutter (Saxophone), Ian "The Horn" Baldwin (Trumpet), Joe "The Lips" Griffiths (Tenor Saxophone and Horn Section leader), Paul "The Wizard" Arthurs (Drums and Musical Director), Roger "Daddy Cool" Smith (Manager and Bass Guitar) and Ben "Reet" Pettit (Lead Guitar)...

So don your ray bans and fedora... and join the mission!

The Joliet Blues Band play at The Gateway, Seaton Town Hall on Saturday, August 17th, with doors opening at 7.30pm. For more details or to book tickets call 01297 625699, visit the website www.seatongateway.co.uk, or purchase tickets from Animal Botanical (Seaton).

A tribute to the magic of Roxy Music

ROXY Magic are without doubt the UK's top Roxy Music tribute band. All the hits are flawlessly performed in this authentic tribute show.

They create entirely live material that spans four decades;

from futurist/nostalgic art rock, through classic standards, to sophisticated adult-oriented rock.

Roxy Magic's aim is to give the audience a fabulously entertaining evening, featuring quality musicianship and a wonderful Bryan Ferry look and sound-alike, in the form of singer Kevin Hackett, combine to do just that.

See the band play all the hits including 'Street Life', 'Love Is The Drug' and 'Ladytron', and many more.

Roxy Magic perform at the Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis this Friday (August 16th). Doors open 7.45pm, with the band onstage at 8.30pm.

Tickets cost £14 (full) and £12 (concessions), or £45 (family 2+2), and a TheatreFriends discount is available. To book tickets or for more details visit www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138.

The Sherpas to play at Eyre Court Hotel

EXETER'S most popular young band "The Sherpas" are performing at the Eyre Court Hotel's Party Night on August 23rd.

The Sherpas new EP 'Soiree' was recently launched at Mama Stones, just as Exeter's progressive indie rock band began a summer of UK and European gigs and festivals. The Sherpas are gifted young musicians and stunning live performers, flipping from memorable indie rock in the vein of The Maccabees, to passionate songs that recall Jeff Buckley.

The band have put off money-making contracts to stay independent. Bassist Chris Tilke is brilliant at recording and production; frontman Pierre Roxon is also budding film maker. – and the whole band creates The Sherpas stunningly original sound – with guitarists Ben Milverton and Jake Daniel and James Fuke on percussion.

The Sherpas fought off stiff competition to win the 2012 Battle of the Bands competition at the Cavern in Exeter. Before Ben and Pierre joined, the Sherpas had won several other competitions including Battle of the Bands contests in Sidmouth in 2009 and Okehampton in 2010.

The band list their influences as: "Red Hot Chili Peppers, Bombay Bicycle Club, Pearl Jam, Jimi Hendrix, Richie Kotzen, Led Zeppelin, The Maccabees, The Strokes and many, many more..." in addition to modern dance and jazz.

Doors open on August 23rd at 8pm, band on at 9pm. Entry is free, and a free buffet is available.

Fulfords launch September Open House Weekend to help more people to move home

IF YOU are looking to sell or let your house or buy or rent your next home, the 'MOVE - Open House Weekend' could be right up your street.

The summer months are traditionally a quieter period for the housing market but not this year, according to Fulfords Estate Agents in Seaton which is now gearing up for a busy autumn ahead as it launches its 'MOVE - Open House Weekend' event in September.

"Activity levels usually peak in the spring and then dip during the summer months as the holiday period takes people's focus away from moving home. However, that hasn't happened this year with the recent upturn in the housing market encouraging those looking to buy or rent property," says Chris Heal, Manager of Fulfords Estate Agents.

Fulfords believes the trend will continue into the autumn, with an influx of buyers and tenants keen to move before Christmas. With the added incentive of an Open House Weekend, the prospect for homeowners and landlords to sell or let their properties couldn't be better.

The 'MOVE - Open House Weekend' will be held on Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th September. The team at Fulfords will join more than 1,300 branches throughout the UK in this national campaign to help more buyers and sellers, landlords and tenants complete their sales, let their properties and purchase or rent a home this autumn.

In addition to the Open House Weekend, Fulfords will also be promoting the Government's Help to Buy scheme, which is assisting more first-time buyers to get on the housing ladder and purchase their first home. Fulfords mortgage consultant is available to provide information about the Help to Buy scheme as well as assist buyers in finding the right mortgage for them.

The last Open House event held in May attracted nearly 25,000 viewings and resulted in over 2,000 sales. Launching the 'Move - Open House Weekend' event, Chris Heal, Branch Manager of the Seaton office commented:

"Sellers and landlords from across the UK have already started to register for the event, recognising that this is an ideal opportunity to promote their property and attract lots of viewings from interested buyers and tenants over the weekend. Previous Open House events have been very successful for our customers and we expect this event to be no exception.

"The attraction for vendors, landlords, buyers and tenants alike is the opportunity for genuine home movers to see the widest selection of properties within one weekend at a time that is convenient for them, rather than different appointments scattered over days and sometimes weeks, which can make the process much longer."

Chris added: "There is still time for homeowners and landlords to sign up and take part - we are keen to showcase as many properties as we possibly can to ensure we help match the right buyer and tenant to the right property and at the right price.

"The 'MOVE - Open House Weekend' is another example of the innovative ways that we are helping buyers, sellers, landlords and tenants overcome the typical barriers they are often faced, by offering access to the most amount of properties in one weekend, combined with dedicated in-house mortgage advice and a conveyancing solution, which ensures the legal aspects of your property transaction are managed by a professional property lawyer."

Don't miss out! If you have a property to sell or let, be part of the UK's largest Open House Weekend. Call 01297 24224 or visit the branch in Queen Street, Seaton. For a full list of all the properties participating in the 'MOVE - Open House Weekend', log on to www.propertywide.co.uk

Detached five bedroom farmhouse in a semi-rural location on the edge of Musbury

CHAMPIONHOLMES is pleased to offer a detached five bedroom farmhouse in a semi-rural location on the edge of Musbury village. Unfurnished, for £1,300 per calendar month, with character features.

The front Porch and door leads into the Entrance Hall, with flagstone floor with doors off to the Store or Boot room, Cloakroom with WC and wash hand basin, Utility Room with space and plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer. The kitchen / Breakfast Room, with window / window seat to the front aspect, again with flagstone floor, incorporates brick-built housing areas for storage and a dishwasher, has a solid granite work surface over, and incorporates a gas 'Alfa' range style cooker, which also supplies the gas heating for the property. From the kitchen a step up and doorway leads into the Dining / Sun Room – this has windows to the front and side aspects, with a door leading to the front garden.

The Living Room has a flagstone floor, exposed beamed ceiling and a window to the front aspect. An inglenook fireplace gives a focal point to this room and incorporates a woodburning stove with a small log store to the side. A door from the living room into the inner hall, with original cream and terracotta tiled floor, gives access to the Annexe side of the property and also has stairs to the first floor of the farmhouse. From this hall a further door leads into another Sun room / Office, with flagstone floor and glazed to two aspects, with a door to the front garden.

The first floor Landing to the farmhouse has doors to bedroom One, a small double, has a window to the front aspect and a beamed wall. Bedroom Two, a double size room, again has a window to the front aspect, and has an ornamental cast-iron fireplace as a focal point. The room has a walk-in wardrobe and a store cupboard under the stairs – the stairs lead up to an attic 'Den' – great for a teenager! The Victorian style family bathroom, with tiled floor, has an ornate pedestal wash hand basin and WC and a free-standing bath which incorporates a brass effect Victorian shower / shower rail over. A small Sauna room gives added luxury. Bedroom Three, the main bedroom, is a large double size room with a beamed vaulted ceiling. The double aspect windows have wooden shutters, with the window to the front aspect having a window seat with comfy cushions

The additional Annexe to this property could equally form part of the farmhouse, or could be used as independent accommodation for a family member. From the inner hall of the farmhouse, a door leads to a short passage, with a door off to the Living Room with exposed beamed ceiling and a window to the front aspect. An inglenook fireplace gives a focal point to this room and incorporates a woodburning stove. A further door leads into the Kitchen / Breakfast Room, again with a beamed ceiling. This good sized room has windows to the rear and side aspects and has some fitted units and space for a free-standing electric cooker. Stairs from the passage lead up to the first floor Landing, with doors to the Shower Room, with wash basin and WC and a shower cubicle with an electric shower. Bedroom One, a single size room has an exposed beamed ceiling and a window to the front aspect. Bedroom Two, a double size room has an exposed beamed ceiling, a window to the front aspect and a good size built-in wardrobe.

Outside to the front is a garden with established shrubs whilst the enclosed courtyard to the side has a number of storage facilities, and a door leading to a further patio area with pergola to the rear. Steps lead up to a raised decked area with balustrade and the two lawns. The shared driveway area allows parking for up to three vehicles.

Nissan Leaf becomes first 100% electric vehicle to join Motability Scheme

The new Nissan LEAF has become the first 100% electric vehicle to join the Motability Scheme, allowing the scheme's 620,000 current users the opportunity to explore zero emission motoring.

The new UK-built LEAF is now available from just £999 Advance Payment (AP). For £1,299 AP customers can upgrade to the Acenta model featuring Nissan's CARWINGS telematics system as well as useful features such as auto lights and wipers, cruise control and a colour reversing camera. At the top of the range, Tekna grade adds BOSE audio, 360° Around View Monitor and leather heated seats and is available for £1,999 AP.

Whichever LEAF model customers ultimately choose, they can look forward to waving goodbye to petrol stations and saying hello to instantaneous power delivery and a peaceful driving experience. A full charge on the LEAF gives up to 124 miles range and costs from around £2 (depending upon time of day and tariff) meaning that over a distance of 10,000 miles drivers can expect to save around £1,000 that would otherwise have been spent on the forecourt.

What's more, British Gas is currently offering a 16Amp data-enabled Home Charging Unit (HCU) which will charge LEAF from empty to full in 8 hours.

Having been designed as a purpose-built electric vehicle from the ground up, the neat packaging of its lithium-ion batteries means there is no compromise on boot space; in fact, with 370 litres on Visia and Acenta grades it has more luggage space than a Ford Focus.

Nissan cars are a popular choice on the Motability Scheme with a range well suited to a variety of mobility needs. The introduction of the new LEAF brings something fresh and innovative to the scheme's existing customers, combining the practicality of a normal medium hatchback with running costs that are a fraction of the price of a petrol or diesel car of its size.

The Motability Scheme is directed and overseen by Motability, a national charity, and enables those people receiving the Higher Rate Mobility Component of Disability Living Allowance or War Pensioner's Mobility Supplement to lease a vehicle through the scheme.

As a Motability Premier Partner, each of Nissan's 200 plus dealerships has a minimum of two trained Motability sales and aftersales specialists who will use their Motability Scheme experience with Juke, Micra, Note, NV200 Combi, Qashqai and Qashqai+2 to discuss options with interested customers.

Jon Pollock, Nissan GB sales director said: "We're proud that the Nissan LEAF has delivered another first ahead of its rivals to become the first 100% electric car on the Motability Scheme. With a starting Advance Payment of just £999 and Motability Scheme specialists at each of our dealerships, getting behind the wheel of an electric vehicle and enjoying low running costs has never been easier."

2014-spec Hyundai i20 WRC kicks up the dust

HYUNDAI Motorsport continued to make strong progress on its development programme by conducting the first gravel tests with a new 2014-specification of the i20 WRC in July.

All three of the team's recently-signed development drivers, Juho Hänninen, Bryan Bouffier and Chris Atkinson, got behind the wheel of the i20 WRC as the team evaluated a range of new components in unique gravel conditions in preparation for its debut season in 2014.

Hyundai Motorsport Team Principal Michel Nandan commented: "We have had a very solid month of testing and learned a lot about the performance potential of the new Hyundai i20 WRC in a range of conditions. As with any inaugural testing, there have been some teething issues to overcome but this is precisely the purpose of testing and we have taken time to analyse and understand the problems. We have signed three very competent development drivers in Juho, Bryan and Chris, and the balance of the last month of testing has, for me, been positive."

The team carried out two separate private tests during July in which to put the latest iteration i20 WRC through its paces with the prime objective of component testing in appropriate conditions for the FIA World Rally Championship.

"The two test sessions that we held last month took place in the grounds of Chateau Lastours and Mazamet in the south of France, two venues that afforded us diverse conditions," continued Nandan. "It is important for us to gather data in rough, as well as fast and flowing conditions. The Hyundai Motorsport engineering and design teams at Alzenau are constantly working to perfect the i20 WRC so these latest tests gave us the opportunity to assess the main mechanical components of the car, like transmission or suspension. It is very much an evolution of the car we used in previous tarmac tests."

The team has also been finessing its own operations at the tests, bonding as a team and establishing the test crew set-up for the rest of the year's testing.

Nandan concluded: "We have had a lot of work to do in a short space of time but I can sense we are working well as a unified team. We have attained another important milestone by kicking off our gravel tests but we have more still to do in the remaining months before Monte-Carlo. We have hit every target so far and I am proud of the entire team effort. We look forward to our next phase of development with optimism."

Accessorising your Seat is now easier than ever: just Click&Go

EVERYBODY likes to be a bit different, which is why SEAT offers a range of accessories and personalisation options for every one of its cars, from Mii to Alhambra. And now, with the launch of Click&Go, it's never been easier to make your SEAT... your SEAT.

In keeping with SEAT's aim of making the entire car ownership experience as hassle-free, cost-effective and enjoyable as possible, the newly launched Click&Go service makes buying accessories a doddle.

A wide range of popular accessories for cars up to ten years old is available at www.seat.co.uk, all just a couple of clicks away, and all priced with both transparency and great value in mind; a fully tailored set of four carpet mats, model-specific and embroidered, costs just £39, for example.

All prices are quoted including fitting and other requisite labour, with necessary work carried out at a participating SEAT dealership local to the customer; a rear spoiler for any SEAT up to ten years old is just £299, fitted and painted.

As with SEAT's It's Fixed! servicing scheme there are never any hidden charges. And to make Click&Go even more enticing, for a limited time* SEAT is offering a 10% discount on all Click&Go orders over £200.

Accessories available under Click&Go include everything from DAB audio kits to paint touch-up sticks. For the full range, visit www.seat.co.uk.

SEAT UK Service & Parts Programme Manager John Deed said: "Click&Go is the latest idea from SEAT aimed at making the customer ownership experience as great value and enjoyable as possible.

"At a time when family budgets are stretched, and people have busier and busier lives, simple initiatives like Click&Go really make a difference, offering great value, guaranteed quality workmanship and total convenience."

For more information on Click&Go, including a full rundown of available accessories, please contact the SEAT Press Office.

*Offer open until 31 October 2013

Get into the new Volkswagen Golf GTD for under £200 a month

THE new Golf GTD will be in Volkswagen showrooms from yesterday (Monday), and customers can get behind the wheel from just £199 a month, using Solutions PCP from Volkswagen Financial Services, or from just £25,285 on the road. What's more, with combined fuel economy of up to 67.3 mpg, emissions as low as 109 g/km and an insurance group rating of 26E (four groups lower than the previous model), the Golf GTD is as economical to own and run as it is rapid.

Powered by a 2.0-litre turbocharged common rail diesel engine (TDI) with 184 PS, the Golf GTD can accelerate from zero to 62 mph in just 7.5 seconds, while the top speed is 142 mph. Maximum torque

– the characteristic that arguably best defines the easily accessible performance of the GTD – has risen from 350 Nm (258 lbs ft) to 380 Nm (280 lbs ft) from just 1,750 rpm.

While the standard six-speed manual Golf GTD consumes just one gallon of fuel every 67.3 miles, even with the optional six-speed DSG fuel consumption is 62.8 mpg and CO₂ emissions 119 g/km. As evidence of the progress which Volkswagen has made over the years in combining performance and economy, when the first generation Golf BlueMotion went on sale at the end of 2007, it too returned 62.8 mpg and had CO₂ emissions of 119 g/km.

The Golf GTD comes with smoked LED rear lights with LED licence plate illumination, along with standard bi-xenon headlights with LED daytime running lights, chrome dual tailpipes, 18-inch 'Nogaro' alloy wheels with 225/40 tyres, side skirts, a rear diffuser, sports suspension and a large roof spoiler.

Distinctive GTD features distinguish the interior: along with tartan 'Jacara Grey' sports seats, a black roof lining, sports steering wheel, and stainless steel pedals, there is also a GTD-specific gear lever, trim strips and instrument cluster. Standard features including progressive steering, white ambient lighting, 2Zone climate control and a touchscreen infotainment system which also includes DAB digital radio, Bluetooth and iPod connectivity.

As well as high performance, a high level of safety equipment comes as standard in the Golf GTD. On top of high passive safety levels – thanks in part to a passenger cell made from high- and ultra-high strength steels – active safety features include the Automatic Post-Collision Braking system, a pre-crash system, Front Assist, City Emergency Braking, Automatic Distance Control, and seven airbags as standard, including one for the driver's knees.

Optional equipment includes 19-inch 'Santiago' alloy wheels, 'Vienna' leather upholstery, keyless entry, High Beam Assist, Lane Assist, Park Assist (parking sensors are standard), a rear view camera, ACC Adaptive Chassis Control, touchscreen satellite navigation and a Dynaudio sound pack with 10-channel amplifier and eight speakers.

No entry rules is a winning format for the classic vehicle gathering in Exmouth

AN ANNUAL classic car show in East Devon that does not require entrants to pre-book or pay an entry fee will be celebrating its tenth anniversary on Sunday 18th August, writes David Morgan.

The annual Classic Vehicle Gathering on the Imperial Recreation Ground in Exmouth, was first staged by members from the Devon Branch of the Morris Minor Owners Club in 2004 as an informal gathering of Morris Minors and other classic and modern cars of interest.

So popular has the no-entry-form, no-fee format become that it now attracts in excess of 200 classic cars and motorcycles ranging from individual entries to club displays. Last year the event had club displays from the MX 5 Owners Club South West region, Chrysler PT Cruisers, Ford Anglia 105E Owners Club and the Exeter Air-Cooled Club for classic Volkswagens.

Spokesperson, Lorna Moggridge said: "Every year we have more and more classic and modern vehicles of interest turning up and enjoying the informal atmosphere of this show located near to the sea. Enthusiasts like to turn up and depart at whatever time they want to. There are no rigid entry rules in place"

The event also helps to raise funds for a local charity, which this year is the Devon Air Ambulance. Visitors can make voluntary donations on the day in the collecting buckets.

The Classic Vehicle Gathering takes place from 10am until 4PM.

For further details ring Lorna Moggridge on (01823) 672693 or Nickie Tilley on (01395) 225614.

First Corinthian cup triumph for Seaton

Match reports Seaton v Ashburton

AFTER three losses in the last four weeks (with the other game being abandoned) Seaton needed to up their game as they hosted third placed Ashburton on Saturday.

Captain Ben Morgan won the toss and elected to bat and openers Steve Pritchard and Ed Hunt started very well taking the total to 39 after nine overs.

However, both were out soon after and Richard Warner left a straight one in the 16th over and Morgan followed next ball with Seaton tottering on 53-4.

Nick Beedell and Michael Wheeler rebuilt the innings with a partnership of 88 to lift the score to 141-5 when Wheeler was out to a superb diving catch on the boundary by a 49-year-old opponent who had not held a catch in nearly two years!

Mark Bray then continued to dominate with 34 off 21 balls. Morgan's side then moved from 192-7 with 50 runs in the last five overs that included a 16-ball 36 for Joe Berry.

Ashburton's reply didn't start too well and they were struggling on 66-5 in the 24th over after some controlled and tight bowling from Ben Libby (2-23), Michael Wheeler (1-32), Morgan (2-32) and Phil Collins (3-25).

Ashburton were eventually bowled out for 152 giving Seaton 20 points in a 92-run win.

Morgan said: "This was a fantastic and much needed win after some of the poor cricket we have played recently. Everyone came together and worked hard for each other and we bowled very well.

We play Shaldon Optimists next week who sit just two points ahead of us so this will be a massive game."

CORINTHIAN CUP

AFTER beating E Division side Topsham St James in the first round, Seaton played higher opposition in the next three rounds on their way to the final which was played against Dartington & Totnes at Ivybridge on Sunday.

Seaton captain Ben Morgan won the toss and elected to bat and Mark Bray played some lovely shots before being caught out for 13 in the 3rd over.

Nick Beedell joined opener John Waterhouse at the crease and the pair put on 28 for the 2nd wicket until Beedell was trapped in front.

Morgan then put on 73 with Waterhouse which changed the momentum of the game.

soon followed for 28. Matt Hancock and Phil Collins took the total to 134-5 at the end of the innings.

Dartington's reply started well and after five overs they were cruising at 41-1. Morgan and Chris Aplin kept the runs down in the middle overs and two big wickets saw them struggling at 83-4.

Wickets fell frequently after that with death bowler Nathan Maddocks taking 3-10 from 18 balls to see Seaton to victory after bowling Dartington out for 118 to see Seaton lift the cup for the first time in their history.

Morgan said after the game: "This was a fantastic day for the club and once again the team spirit was fantastic throughout the whole day. Its really nice to see everyone chipping in."

sailing beer luggers

THE seven Beer Luggers were recently faced by a north-westerly wind and lumpy sea for their most recent race.

Cuckoo and Puffin made the early running sailing on a westerly course towards the windward mark.

Three other vessels tacked shorewards but this failed to pay any dividends.

Cuckoo reached the mark first and completed the first round with Mary second and Scrumpty third.

Mary closed the gap marginally during the second round but Cuckoo still held pole-position.

Positions in mid-fleet changed hands several times with Puffin, Little Wing, Catherine and Moon-dance enjoying as close tussle.

The race ended with Cuckoo in first and Mary holding off Scrumpty for second place.

Result: 1st Cuckoo (sailed by G.Dart), 2nd Mary (D.Boalch), 3rd Scrumpty (G.Lockyear), 4th Moon-dance (G.Pook), 5th Little Wing (D.Townsend), 6th Puffin (R.Driver), 7th Catherine (M.Diplock).

Result by handicap: 1st Mary, 2nd Little Wing.

Honiton Farmers just edged out in Verney Final

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIORS

It was Captain's Day for the Seniors last Friday and although a breeze got up around mid-day, it was a wonderful day for golf.

Competitors were divided into two sections, those of 20 handicap and below playing for the Captain's Shield and from 21 to 28 handicap playing for the Cooper Shield.

The winner in the first Section with 35 points was Gerry Turner (11), and runner-up was Keith Wilson (13) with 34 points.

Two players tied for the next prize on 33 points with Iain Bain (13) edging out the Captain, John White, on countback to claim third spot.

In the second section two players amassed 40 points and again on countback the winner was Leighton Morgan (24) with David Lacey (also 24) having to settle for second place.

Third on his own with 36 points was Charles Whitbourn (28).

The prizes for nearest the pin went to Sid Pember (11th) and Keith Wilson (18th) and nearest in two shots at the 13th - Chris Jowett.

There were four 2s from Gerry Turner, Mick Tomes, Phil Wilkins and Iain Bain.

At the conclusion of play the players were treated to an excellent buffet meal by the Captain, John White who thanked Rob Grove, who was unable to play, for all his hard work on the day, which included photographs of all the participants taken on the first Tee.

In response Rob led the tributes to the Captain, not only for the day, but for his much appreciated captaincy throughout the year.

Earlier in the week the team travelled to Exminster for the first inter-club match between the sides at Exminster.

On their own course the home side proved too strong and won by 5-1.

The solitary winners for Axe Cliff were Malcolm Glass and Peter Rollason.

The return match is later this month at Axe Cliff.

LADIES AND MAIN CLUB

INVITATION time once more at Axe Cliff - The Byrt Trophy was played for in very windy conditions and the winners were Dougy Board and Pete Howorth from East Devon with 65 points well ahead of second place winners Richard Gibbons and Vic Wood from Honiton with 60 points.

Third place went to home player Geoff Greenslade with Darren Mears from East Devon beating Garry Wall and Paul Dyke from Lyme Regis both with 59 points on the back nine.

The best player for Axe Cliff was Ronnie Reed with 32 and for invitees Wayne Vincent from Lyme Regis Golf Club with 34.

The August Medal was played for last Sunday in yet again in very windy conditions.

First place went to Neil Jones with a nett 73. In second was Paul Clode with a nett 74 beating Simon Sweetland who took third place both with nett 74.

On a perfect day for golf the Ladies of Axe Cliff held their Invitation day with ladies from Devon, Dorset, Somerset, Hampshire and Surrey taking part.

This was played in an interesting format, One home player with two guests with one score to count on the par threes, two scores on the par fours and all three scores to count on the par fives.

The winners were Helen Kenworthy and her guests Mona Carter and Ann Trayling from Honiton Golf Club with 79 points.

Second place went to home player Pauline Willis with her guests Betty Willey and Sue Jackson from Crediton Golf Club with 78 points, and in third place Margaret Kenchington from Axe Cliff with her guests Anne Jacobs and Anne Luetchford from Corhampton with 76 points.

Fourth place winners were Barbara Cummings from Axe Cliff with Kay Foster from Woodbury Golf Club and Shirely Lenton from Stover.

Lady Captain's day was a great success with good weather, lovely prizes and an excellent lunch for all players.

The winners of the day were Barbara Cummings & Glenda Board. In second place were Pauline Willis & Helen Kenworthy.

PRO'S OPEN DAY

A FULL field turned out for the Pro's Open day with the first group out at 7.30am and the last making it back to the clubhouse at 8.30pm in Summer twilight.

In between I have a feeling the course was blacker at midday when the heavens opened on the poor competitors that were out there.

Good scores of 40pts plus were evenly spread throughout the day so it would seem that the downpour didn't affect the good players too much. It didn't affect the lucky players either as I'm here to confirm.

After a very ordinary 12 holes (with a blob on 11) I found myself having to play a high tariff 9 iron over very tall trees to a blind 13th green.

It was a shot way out of my pay league so you can imagine my surprise when after clearing the trees that my partners said it had gone in for an eagle two.

A shot to grace any major tournament and I never saw it! Ah well, the subsequent five points cheered our round up no end and eventually saw John Marchant and myself come in 4th with the best of the 40pts.

There were prizes for the first 11 with top of the tree being Mark Gillard and his Olympian friend Rob Tobin with 43pts.

In 2nd on count back were Dave and Janet Hughes and 3rd, coming in as the last round of the day were Roy Bumpstead and Ollie Cave with 41pts.

TUESDAY MIXED

PROVIDING you and your partner can hit the ball straight the American Foursomes Format is a pleasure to play.

You each drive, then play each others ball for the second shot before deciding which ball you will then have in play - hopefully you only need to putt!

Over 40 members played. The winners, with 41pts, were Penny Blackburn and Terry Dimond.

In 2nd place were Christine Whitley and Peter Dart with 40pts on c/b from Jean Smith and Jason Gosling.

In 4th place was Linda McLaughlin and John Northover with 39pts and 5th place was Andrea Squire and Alan Booth with 38pts on c/b.

LADIES SECTION

GOOD weather once again brought in some excellent scores for the ladies this week playing for the Handicap Cup.

The winner this year was Linda Blundell with a net 69, with runner-up Su Calver scoring a net 71 (c/b).

In the medal competition, Silver Division was won by Su Calver on net 71 and Heather Clarke took 2nd on net 73 (c/b).

In 1st place in the Bronze 1 Division was Linda Blundell with net 69, followed in 2nd place by Catherine Doherty with net 71, while Chris Luttmann was 3rd on c/b from Jan Dickinson in 4th, both with net 73.

Rosemary Whitely took 1st place in Bronze 2 Division with net 72, ahead of Lesley Farley with net 74.

The nine-hole Stableford was won by Julie Eyles with 19 points.

SENIOR SECTION

PAUL Ritchie made the most of the good conditions to top division one in the seniors monthly medal. He made a net 65 and duly paid the price - a reduction in his handicap.

This was offset by the prize of credit in the professional's shop and he was presented with an embossed glass tankard.

Runner-up David Hughes scored 67, as did Bob Bilyard. Keith Lloyd and Pat Purtell took the last prizes in that division.

Ashley Murray won division two with a net 68 followed by Tom Tunnicliffe with a 69.

Jack Phillips beat Norrie Fleet on count back, both on 70 and Howard Clayton took the last prize with a 71.

It was good to see Harold Cook back on the course. You can't keep a good man down.

Intrepid AVR's up to the Three Peaks Challenge

WHAT is life without a challenge? Unlike many good resolutions this one had strengthened in proportion to its removal in time from the initial idea in September 2012 that inspired it.

The National three Peaks Challenge involves reaching the highest peaks of Scotland, England and Wales within 24 hours, a total of 26 miles.

The minibus, drivers, fuel, route, food etc were meticulously planned beginning with a Monday 7.15 am start from Seaton to begin the 12 hour drive to Fort William in Scotland.

Axe Valley Runners Eleanor Wood, Paul Tolchard, Paul Johns, Graham Newton, Tim and James Sibley, Alan and Matt Morbey, Rich Dodge, Jon Day and Richard Hale began the challenge with an ascent of Scotland's 1344 metres high Ben Nevis at 8.10 pm.

The damp, swirling cloud shrouded summit was reached at twilight after a climb up the well-defined stony track that soon became increasingly rocky, arduous and exposed.

Head torches were essential for the dark return descent to Glen Nevis and the awaiting hot drinks and energy foods.

There was little sleep to be had during the 255mile drive through the early hours to Wasdale in the Lake District for the ascent of England's highest peak, Scafell Pike at 978 metres.

The cloud-capped summit was reached after negotiating a path through the large stone outcrops and all runners returning safely.

Expectations were high while on the last 207 miles road section of the Challenge to Snowdonia in Wales.

The summit of Snowdon lies at 1085 metres and was reached on the winding slate and stone Pyg Path, undulating and steep in places with loose stone and shale.

The runners regrouped at the top for photographs and to absorb the spectacular mountain views in bright afternoon sunshine in all directions.

Excitement and adrenalin levels were high for the final descent to Pen y Pass before the 24hr deadline and all 11 runners completed the Challenge with time to spare.

Revelry and celebrations of a remarkable team achievement continued again later at the Royal Oak Pub in Betws-y-Coed as it would be a distant memory soon enough.

Running three peaks in 24 hours was not enough for James Sibley; he decided that he would also complete the Jurassic Classic 100 mile cycle ride in the same week!

The route around East Devon starts in Exmouth then heads along the Jurassic coast to Seaton then looping inland before heading back to Exmouth to finish the very hilly 100 miles.

With nearly 3000 metres of climbing, nearly as much as the three peaks combined, James was very pleased to break the seven hour mark, finishing in 6hrs 55min.

James was also very pleased to raise over £200 for Prostate Cancer UK charity. Well Done James!

Patrick Devine-Wright ran the Great Pyramid Race on Saturday, starting from the town of Gordonvale, near Cairns in Northern Queensland, Australia.

The race goes up to the summit of a nearby mountain, Walsh's Pyramid that is 922m high and is reckoned to be the tallest pyramid mountain in the world - no shoulders or sister peaks, just straight up!

The race has been going since 1949 apparently, when two locals were stuck for something to do on a Sunday and, having had a few beers too many decided to challenge each other to a run to the top and back!

The race is run at 2pm in the afternoon, when the temperature was pushing 29 degrees and there were about 150 competitors this year.

The winner came home in about 1 hour 29 minutes, promptly collapsed of heat exhaustion and was later taken to hospital for rehydration.

Patrick ran steadily through the field to finish in 7th place, 2nd male Vet in 1:39:00.

Three AVR's ran the Haselbury Trail 10k in perfect conditions.

Matt Clist ran very well finishing 2nd in 38:27 with a not quite race fit Alex Todd just behind in 4th spot, despite ripping his shorts on a post taking 40:14, still only four seconds adrift of his last years winning time.

Robin Britton also ran well to finish 33rd in 47:16.

Sparkling Perry fizzes through 1000-run barrier

SEAN Perry continued his fine season with the bat by easing through the 1000 runs for the season barrier by cracking a superb 137 in Axminster CC 2nd XI's victory at Upton 2nds on Saturday.

The Carpetmen totaled 281 all out batting first with Alan Ostler clipping a fine 71.

The hosts were dismissed for 230 with James Whetlor leading the attack with 4 for 23.

High-flying Ax welcome Feniton on Saturday.

Not such good news from the Axminster 1st XI who fell agonisingly three runs short as they failed to chase down visiting Bideford's 202 for 9 in Division C.

In reply several Ax batsman got starts with Gary Larcombe top-scoring with 32 but they could only muster 199 for 9 and had to settle for eight points and now trail league leaders Bideford by 34 runs.

Down in Division D Seaton closed the gap on second placed Shaldon Optimists with a 90-run triumph over Ashburton.

itive 242 for 8.

The visitors were restricted to 152 all out with Phil Collins (3-25) the most successful of the home attack.

Next up for Seaton is the all-but 'winner-takes-promotion' clash at Shaldon on Saturday.

Twenty four hours later Seaton beat Dartington & Totnes to lift the Corinthian Cup for the first time in their history - see report inside on page 53.

Seaton 2nds came off second best in the local derby at Kilminster.

Batting first Mike Waterhouse scored 40 as Seaton closed on 191 with Colin Seward bagging 5 for 41.

Kilminster reached 195 for 7 with Adam Culley cracking 83 and Chris Aplin (3 for 43) and Tim Mitchell (3 for 30) among the wickets.

Seaton 2nds welcome Upton 2nds at the weekend while Kilminster are on their travels at Whimble 2nds.

Elsewhere, James Thomas complied a magnificent maiden century with 118 as Seaton 3rds (229) beat Kenn 104 (Dan Thomas 5 for 21) by a whopping 125 runs.

The Seaton third-string travel to Halberton & Sampford Peverell on Saturday.

Down at Topsham St James Kilminster 1st XI batsman Win Wilmott fell one run short of a ton with a 17-boundary 99 as the visitors (227) went down by two wickets after Topsham edged home on 230 for 8.

Kilminster welcome Whimble on Saturday.

Over in the Somerset League division 8S a fine all-round performance from Mike Nunns couldn't prevent All Saints from slipping to a 30-run defeat at promotion rivals Wembdon Wyverns.

The hosts made 201 all out with Nunns taking 4 for 47 from his 11 overs.

Nunns, batting at number three, then top-scored with 41 as the Saints were bowled out for 171.

The team, still lying second in the table with three to play, entertain Wincanton on Saturday.
